VOL. XXVI, NO. 87 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1909 TEN CENTS A WEEK

COURT PASSES SENTENCE UPON MANY PRISONERS

Wm. A. Bexley and Truby Osteen Sentenced to Serve Term of Nine Years in State Penitentiary.

The morning session of the Circuit Court Tuesday was a most impressive and pathetic one, when William A. Bexley and Truby Osteen, the young white men tried for the murder of W. H. Moreland, a traveling man, which occurred in July, 1908, and convicted of manslaughter at the present term of the court, were sentenced to a term of nine years each at hard labor in the State penitentiary, amid a crowded court room which was made the more impressive by its silence, as the spectators, some friends of the defendants, others there through mere curiosity, awaiting the sentence of the court in a suspense which caused a minute to seem like five.

The Prisoners Arrive.

The young men, by order of the court, were presented in the court room shortly before 11 o'clock. They were neatly dressed, as they have been throughout the trial, which was evidence that they came from good families. In the coat button-hole of Bexley was a handsome rose-bud of a cream hue, while the lapel of Osteen's coat was adorned with a delicate bunch of fresh pansies. The young men took their seats on the prisoners' bench immediately upon their arrival, and appeared to manifest an interest in the court proceedings.

Commanded to Rise.

As the old clock in the tower tolled the hour of half-past 11—the hour at which the prisoners were to know their fate—Judge Wills abruptly stopped the proceedings in a civil case, and commanded the young men to stand up.

"You (calling each by name) have been indicted by the grand jury upon a charge of murder in the first degree; you have been convicted of manslaughter. Have you, either of you, anything to say why the sentence of the law shall not be passed upon you?"

Attorney Broome in Their Behalf.

Before the defendants had an opportunity to answer, Attorney W. S. Broome addressed the court. He spoke for several moments, and so attentive were his hearers that his remarks had evident effect upon all. Attorney Broome spoke feelingly of the youth of the defendants, touched upon circumstances in the case during the trial, referred to the past good character and record of both parties, reminded the court that both came from good families, and in conclusion made an eloquent and pathetic appeal to the court for leniency.

Both prisoners replied to the question of the court that they had always protested their innocence and still did so, asking the court in passing sentence to be as lenient as possible.

The Judge Was Affected.

Judge Wills, in passing sentence, was visibly affected. He regretted very much the necessity which had fallen upon his shoulders of sentencing two young men to prison, which was his duty as an official, obeying the mandates of the law and the court. He spoke of having known the family of one of the prisoners for a generation, had always been on the most friendly terms with that family, which made the task all the more hard, but as judge of the court the duty had fallen upon him. He then pronounced the sentence as stated above.

Both Bexley and Osteen accepted the sentence as gracefully as possible under the circumstances, having hope that the Supreme Court, to which an appeal will be made, will grant them a new trial.

The court set the supersedeas bond at $3,000 in each case, pending the decision of the Supreme Court upon the motion, and the young men will no doubt secure their release under these bonds within the next two or three days.

Other Sentences Imposed.

The court on Monday afternoon requested the sheriff to have all prisoners convicted at the present term in the court room on the morning of Tuesday, as sentence would be passed upon them; but for some reason this order was changed, and the sentence was imposed upon Bexley and Osteen.

In the afternoon, by order of the court, the other convicted prisoners were arraigned, and the following sentences were recorded:

State vs. Edward Parker, selling liquor, four months in the county jail at hard labor.

Lydia Drake, selling liquor, eight months in the county jail at hard labor.

Silas Perkins, manslaughter, ten years in State prison at hard labor.

Henry Richard, manslaughter, ten years in State prison at hard labor.

David Walker, assault with intent to commit manslaughter, three years in State prison at hard labor.

Chas. Trapp, manslaughter, three years in State prison at hard labor.

Will Sparks, assault with intent to rape, seven years in State prison at hard labor.

Other Court Matters.

There were other matters in the nature of civil cases which came before the court for disposition. A number of cases were continued for the term, while others were settled by trial before a jury.

At a late hour in the afternoon court adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Work Progressing Nicely.

The work of laying the vitrified brick on East Main street is progressing nicely, and at the present rate the block between East Liberty and East Macbeth will soon be completed.

This will be the first solid block of vitrified pavement seen in Gainesville, but it is believed the property owners will appreciate this pavement, and that other work of this nature will soon follow.

WOMAN FOUND WITH SKULL FRACTURED

JACKSONVILLE, May 19.—Lying in a pool of her own blood, unconscious of the calls of her 2-year-and-a-half old baby crawling over her prostrate form, Mrs. John H. Green, a widow, was found in the back yard of her home on Albion street, East Lawtonville, about noon yesterday by a grocery boy, who had twice before called to get her order for the day.

Why the brutal assault was committed, or by whose hand, still remains a mystery, as the woman is now lying in an unconscious condition with a fractured skull in the county hospital.

Immediately after discovering the sad plight of the unfortunate woman, the young man reported the matter to Policemen Grooms and Harrison, who visited the scene and carried the woman into her house. Police headquarters was then communicated with, the ambulance sent to the scene and the woman removed to the hospital, where Dr. Joyner rendered medical attention.

About the house was found tracks which lead the police to believe that someone had chased the woman from the house, finally capturing her and striking the terrible blow which rendered her unconscious.

A thorough investigation was made in the house but what little money was found there showed that the assault could not have been committed for robbery.

SENATOR BEARD CREATES SENSATION IN SENATE

Attacked Governor's Message Because He Believed It Was Reflection Upon His Dead Father.

TALLAHASSEE, May 18.—Severely attacking the special message on the Wailes claim submitted by Governor Gilchrist last week and charging that he believed that the chief executive has been made a tool of in the matter by former Governor Jennings and Comptroller Croom, Senator John S. Beard, on the floor of the Senate yesterday morning, furnished the sensation of the present session.

Senator Beard has not taken a part in the discussion of the Wailes claim matter prior to this because of his relationship to the Beard estate, which is interested, but he explained his remarks, saying that the Governor had gone out of his way to cast reflection upon his dead father, Col. W. K. Beard.

"He is emphatically an honest man and sincere," said Senator Beard of the Governor, in part, "but of very limited mental capacity. His very honesty of purpose renders him an easy victim and an innocent tool of designing men of greater mental capacity, but of less honesty and sincerity of purpose. Of the subject upon which this message treats Governor Gilchrist has absolutely no greater knowledge than one of the pages of the Senate, and apparently not as much capacity to understand and acquire knowledge of it."

While he was speaking a special message came up from the Governor calling attention to remarks of Senator Beard relative to the message which were entered on the Saturday journal. In the message he asked the appointment of a committee to investigate the facts on file in the State offices to see if they would not bear out the statements in his message of Friday. He also devoted a little attention to "certain newspapers" which he said had been continually misrepresenting the Wailes matter. He stated that he had asked them in fairness to publish his message on the subject, but that none had up to that time. He stated that in justice of the State his message should be spread on the journal so the people could get at the real facts of the case.

"In conclusion," said Senator Beard, while finishing his remarks, "permit me to say that it is with extreme reluctance that I have discussed this matter and have done so only because the Governor, wantonly, without foundation and without reason reflected upon the memory of Col. Beard, a man the latchets of whose shoes Governor Gilchrist was unworthy to loosen."

The Senate voted to place both the Governor's message on the Wailes claim and the speech of Senator Beard on the journal, but this action was reconsidered in the afternoon and it was decided instead to submit both to the special committee and to then spread on the journal so much of each as the committee might recommend.

The Senate chamber was crowded throughout the speech of Senator Beard and his attack on the Governor was easily the event of the session. Opinion is rather divided on the matter.

President Hudson announced in the afternoon the appointment on the committee to investigate the Governor's Wailes claim message of Senators Humphries, Crill, Baker of Twentieth, Flournoy and Henderson.

State Uniformity.

Fought steadily through a portion of the morning session and nearly the entire afternoon session, Senator Cone of Columbia county finally pushed his State uniformity of school text-books bill through to third reading yesterday.

The fight was a hard one and it was only by the most diligent work that it was not amended in such a manner as to result in its death.

Senator Johnson took up the discussion, arguing against the bill. He expressed the belief that books would be no cheaper under the plan than under county uniformity.

Senator McLeod spoke for the bill and read a letter from school superintendents of six States favoring the plan.

Senator McCreary, author of the county uniformity bill, spoke strongly against the Cone measure.

Senator Dayton offered arguments against the measure also. He especially pointed out that the educators of the State oppose State uniformity.

The amendment by Senator Dayton providing that the law should not go

Neeley Primary Bill Killed in the House

TALLAHASSEE, May 18. After a debate lasting throughout the afternoon session, the House yesterday killed the Neeley general primary bill. This bill was made up from all of the primary bills introduced during the session by Mr. Neeley of Leon and eliminated the second primary besides making other sweeping changes in the present primary system.

The House went into committee of the whole to consider the measure, and when it emerged the bill was so mixed up with amendments as to obliterate all semblance to the original and it was then easily killed.

During the morning session Speaker Farris introduced his inheritance tax measure.

Representative Kelley of Baker delivered an eloquent speech on the floor of the House and won the passage of his bill, making an appropriation of $2,500 for the completion of the Olustee monument to the Confederates who lie buried on that Florida battlefield.

Husband Arrested for Slaying Sleeping Wife

ATLANTA, May 18.—Mrs. George Burge was murdered early yesterday by a man who crept to the side of her bed while she slept and cut her throat with a razor. Her husband is under arrest charged with the killing.

A remarkable feature of the case is that the slayer after killing the woman picked up her 13-months-old baby from its cradle and fervently kissed it before running from the room. It is alleged that Burge, who had separated from his wife, threatened her with violence if she did not give him custody of their baby.

Three other children of Mrs. Burge, all step-children of Burge, were asleep in the room at the time. Frank Britton, the eldest of these, was slightly cut by his mother's slayer, whom he claims he recognized as his stepfather.

Burge was arrested at his boarding house. The police claim that he had blood on his shirt, but he said it was merely dirt. He said he could prove an alibi.

Change Necessary in Plans of Army Signal Corps

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Washington is much disappointed over the failure of Congress to provide funds for the construction of a gas plant and balloon house at the Fort Myer aerodrome. On account of the lack of appropriations, General James Allen, the chief officer of the signal corps, has been forced to change his plan for the aeronautical trials and tests at Fort Myer this summer. The army motor balloon No. 1, purchased last fall, will be shipped immediately to Fort Omaha, where a modern hydrogen gas plant and balloon house have been erected. The change in the program, however, for the balloon flights will not interfere with the plans for the Wright brothers' and Herring aeroplane trials at Fort Myer.

The signal corps of the army is to make experiments, also, with a view to increasing the range of field wireless telegraph equipment. The apparatus now in use is carried on pack animals, and is capable of sending and receiving messages twenty-three miles. A set of portable wireless apparatus of German manufacture has been recently purchased for trial. The equipment is carried on wheels instead of on the backs of mules, and it has a range of over a hundred miles. Four horses are necessary to haul the vehicle, which is equipped with an extensible mast capable of elevation to the height of sixty feet. The German apparatus will be carefully examined and tried, to determine if it possesses any advantageous features which may be adopted by our service.

A CARNIVAL COMPANY GETS INTO TROUBLE

EFFECTS ATTACHED AS THEY WERE ABOUT TO LEAVE.

Julia Martin Wanted Money for Board, and John Green Demanded Pay for Services Rendered.

There was 'something doing' when the aggregation known as the National Carnival Company, which has been doing business in this city for the past three or four days, attempted to take French leave Monday, with the result that the effects of this company were attached after they had been loaded in the car. It was a narrow escape, but lucky for the parties suing out the writ, as the car had already been attached to a northbound train, and a delay of five minutes by Sheriff Ramsey would have meant that all the trouble would have been of no avail.

The performers who make up this carnival attraction, which consisted only of an antique merry-go-round and a canvas plantation show, accepted hospitalities, bed and board, of Julia Martin, who conducts a boarding-house for colored people at 404 N. Arredondo street, to the extent of $11.75, and attempted to leave without paying their bill. John Green, an employe of the aggregation, went to the sheriff with his troubles, claiming the company owed him $16 for services which he had been unable to collect.

A writ of attachment was issued in each case, when Sheriff Ramsey immediately had the effects attached, just as they were about to be hauled out of the city.

It is understood that arrangements have been made to settle all claims, when the National Carnival Company, of which Jack Greenhall poses as manager, will be permitted to "take their rags" and go on their way, sadder but wiser for the experience.

BURNING ECZEMA QUICKLY SPREAD

Started Like Ringworm on Hand—Hand Swelled and Then Humor Spread to Arms, Legs and Face—It was Something Terrible.

PRESCRIPTIONS FAILED: CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I have used the Cuticura Remedies for a very bad case of eczema with complete success. About fifteen or eighteen years ago the disease developed in the shape of a large pimple on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm, and made very light of it. He gave me a wash and told me to apply it before going to bed and all would be over in the morning. But the next morning my hand was all swollen up and I poultried it. When the doctor came to his office I showed him the hand and to my surprise he told me that he had never experienced such a case in his practice and said it was well I poultried it. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and finally to my thighs and legs generally and finally on my face. The burning was something terrible. After I had tried this doctor, as I thought, long enough, I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take quite a while to cure it. His medicine checked the advance of the disease but no further.

"I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and I have not been troubled with another attack since. I still use the Cuticura Ointment in my family as it is one of the best remedies to heal a sore or other injury rapidly. I can freely and truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are the best so far as my experience went with them and I am still recommending them, feeling sure I am not making a mistake. C. Burkhart, 236 W. Market St., Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 19, 1908."

The amendment lost, 15 to 11.

Senator Dayton offered a number of amendments which were all voted down and the bill then passed on to third reading.

HAD A BIG TIME.

Colored Churches of the City Combine in Picnic Monday.

The colored churches of the city combined in a grand annual picnic Monday, and those who attended report one of the grandest times of their lives.

Unlike former years, the promoters decided this year not to leave the city limits, and held forth on the local baseball park. The day was passed in games and athletic exercises of various kinds, concluding with a grand match of base ball between two picked teams, which proved quite animated at times.

Refreshments were served, and altogether the day proved an orderly and successful one.

"UNLOADED" GUN KILLS YOUNG BARTOW BOY

LAKELAND, May 18.—A horrible tragedy occurred Sunday afternoon at Bartow, when Willie Morrison, an 11-year-old boy of that city, accidentally shot and killed the 13-year-old son of F. B. Terrell.

Mr. Terrell is a wagonmaker of Lakeland, but his family reside in Bartow, and it was while playing with an old gun which they 'didn't know was loaded' that the accident occurred. The two boys were playing 'soldier' and the little Morrison boy pointed the gun at the Terrell boy, which at once exploded, tearing a hole in the boy's body, from the effects of which he died almost instantly, only living about five minutes.

The Morrison boy is overwhelmed with grief at his terrible deed, while the family are inconsolable over their great and sudden bereavement.

Jim Smith Gets a "Plum."

Jas. F. Smith, the well-known jovial photographer, has been "walkin' proud" for the past day or two, and when one of his friends mustered up sufficient courage Tuesday to inquire as to the cause, Jim promptly gave out the information that at last a Government plum has fallen over into his yard, as he has been appointed official photographer to look after the Government building while under construction here.

The Government officials are evidently from Missouri, as they not only demand from the contractors full written reports, but insist on having photographic reproductions of the building from time to time to demonstrate the progress, and it is for that purpose that Mr. Smith has been employed.

The Government is to be congratulated upon securing the services of not only a first-class photographer, but a good fellow in the bargain.

NEW A. C. L. SCHEDULE.

Shortening of Time of Ocala-Jacksonville Train Proves Good.

The traveling public will hail with satisfaction the change of the schedule of the Ocala-Gainesville-Jacksonville train, which has been shortened considerable between these points.

The new schedule went into effect Monday, the 17th, and proved successful the first day, the train rolling in on the minute in both directions. As the schedule now stands there is no doubt but that travel will increase, as the service is a very popular one.

Train No. 10 from Ocala leaves now at 7:45 a. m., arriving in Jacksonville at 10:55 a. m. Train No. 9 leaves Jacksonville at 4:15 p. m., Gainesville at 7:32 p. m., arriving at Ocala at 9:10 p. m.

This schedule will afford Gainesville people an opportunity to go to Jacksonville, spend four hours in transacting business, and return home the same day. It will also prove a great convenience to those who reside south of Gainesville, as it will afford that class an entire day in Gainesville to do their trading, etc.

Whooping Cough.

This is more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKeig of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: 'My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Cushman Was Pleased.

After a few days spent in this city as the guest of the family of his brother, E. L. Cushman, I. N. Cushman left yesterday for his home in Greensburg, Ind. He came for the purpose of accompanying his brother's two little sons, Lucius and James, who have been spending the past two years in Greensburg with relatives.

While here Mr. Cushman had the opportunity of several drives into the country, and expressed himself as being well pleased with this section. He may decide to return here with his family to locate.

Mr. Cushman is a telegraph operator, and for several years has been in the employ of the Big Four at various points.

A Living Skeleton

Is the final condition of any child that has worms—if it lives. Think of having something in your stomach that eats all you take as nourishment. Nine-tenths of the babies have worms—maybe yours has. Be certain that it has not by giving it White's Cream Vermifuge—it expels all worms and is a tonic for the baby. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Bob Dixon Married.

W. R. Dixon, well-known in this city, and Miss Ola Hurlay of Ocala, were married Sunday, Judge H. G. Mason performing the ceremony. The groom was reared in this city, being a son of Mrs. M. A. Dixon, W. Liberty street.

CAPUDINE for "THAT HEADACHE."

GAINESVILLE UP-TO-DATE

Even in the Difficult Task of the Removal of Houses.

No one can say that Gainesville is not up-to-date in every way. Every day something of a modern nature develops to startle the people, but the latest venture is one worthy of special mention, having proved a success.

Pedestrians on the square Monday were startled to see a house moving with good speed down the street, and a closer investigation revealed the fact that a small office building was being conveyed intact from the new Masonic Temple to the site of the new Government building at the foot of East Main street. The house, which was about ten by twelve feet in dimensions, was loaded bodily on the large truck and transferred without mishap.

The building will be used as an office for the contractors on the Government building.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill-feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

Called to Indiana.

Lee Graham left Monday for Indianapolis, Ind., having been summoned on account of the serious illness of his aunt, Mrs. Wright Jordan. It is hoped he found the condition of the patient greatly improved. Mrs. Jordan is well-known and has many friends in this city, having visited her brother, Captain Jas. M. Graham, several times.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM DREAD CATARRH

Why don't you get rid of that nasty, humiliating disease catarrh?

You can do it if you really want to.

But you can't cure catarrh in a few days, that's an utter impossibility, because there is no remedy known that will kill the catarrh germs in that short time.

But you can cure catarrh if you will have a little patience and breathe in Hyomei, (pronounced High-o-me) three or four times a day.

Hyomei is a powerful antiseptic and germ killer air; it is made from the fluid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of inland Australia where catarrh has never existed.

It gives relief instantly, stops hawking in a few days and is guaranteed to cure catarrh, asthma, croup and bronchitis or money back. A complete outfit, including inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles of Hyomei if afterward needed, cost but 50 cents. Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

"Hyomei certainly saved my life and I accord it the credit which it deserves and merits. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomei."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter avenue, Coldwater, Mich, August 22, 1908.

MI-O-NA
Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disorders—or why back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

When we read of jealous or other people murdering sweethearts and wives and then committing self-destruction we cannot but wish that the suicide had come first. It would save in each case at least one life.

Two Frenchmen fought a duel in New Jersey recently. The singular thing about it is that one of them was killed. Usually French duels are bloodless or nearly so, but, perhaps, the change of scene and climate is responsible for the tragedy.

A fire in the general warehouse of the Seaboard Air Line at Portsmouth Sunday destroyed property amounting, by estimation, to $150,000. The Seaboard has been having more or less bad luck the past few years, and it is such misfortunes as this that keeps the system in poverty row.

Let not the tongue be profaned with slander. If the temptation comes to offend others in this way see to it that a lock be placed upon the lips. Slander, like all evils, injures most the person that utters it, for while it may work harm to others it rebounds with double force upon the slanderer.

The data furnished by various institutions for feeble-minded people prove that work is one of the very best things for them in that it stimulates them physically and mentally. In like manner work is also of incalculable value to the man who is mentally and physically strong. The idle man becomes reckless, discontented, and physically flabby. Work, apart from its productive value, keeps men out of mischief and promotes health, contentment, and happiness.

It is said that the population of the new town of Messina in Italy is likely to suffer an outbreak of disease because of the utter neglect of sanitation. If such does occur the survivors will probably say it was the will of God and the workings of a mysterious providence. This fashion of throwing the responsibility on the Almighty is not unknown in this country. Many families have dirty cellars and premises that invite sickness, and when it does come and some of the family die they wonder why it happened and begin to question the goodness of the Supreme Being.

Capt. Peter C. Hains, convicted of manslaughter on the charge of killing William E. Annis, has been sentenced to serve an intermediate term of from eight to sixteen years in prison, the sentence simply reading "at hard labor in the State's prison." The widow of Annis, in speaking of the verdict, said: "We didn't clamor for Capt. Hains' life. All we wanted was justice, and I believe the verdict of the jury is convincing proof of the great wrong Capt. Hains did when he robbed my children of their father. No one has a right to take life and make innocent people widows and orphans."

GARBLED NEWS.

In Friday afternoon's Jacksonville Metropolis appears the following in its Tallahassee correspondence:

"In the Senate yesterday there was a lively tilt between Senators on the uniform text-book bill. Senator Dayton of Pasco asked leave to call up a bill out of its regular order, and the supposition being that he wanted to call up some measure of his own, no objection was made. Instead, however, of doing this, he called up the bill introduced by Senator McCreary, on the subject of uniformity by county adoption. As there are other uniform text-book bills on the calendar, one of them being set for special order for Monday, a fight was made then and the debate threatened to become acrimonious. Senator Cone of Lake City, who is quite an accomplished tactician, moved that this bill be made a special order for the same time as his bill on the same subject, and finally succeeded in carrying the motion, since which there has been a perceptible fluttering among the occupants of that dovecote known as the lobby, a hurrying and scurrying hither and thither as of creatures disturbed by scenting a storm from afar. If the vote yesterday making this bill a special order was any test of strength there is no doubt that the bill will pass the Senate and it is likely that it will have votes to spare as several Senators who are thought to be friends of the measure and who were absent will be here Monday afternoon."

Now what are the facts? The official Journal of the Senate of Thursday shows the following proceedings:

Mr. Dayton moved to waive the rules and that Senate Bill No. 2 be taken up and considered.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote, and—

Senate Bill No. 2:

A bill to be entitled an act to secure to the people of Florida school text-books at reduced prices; to provide special editions of said books at low prices; to empower county boards of public instruction to adopt such books, if desired; to authorize county boards of public instruction to make contracts with publishers; to provide for the filing of contracts; to provide for children who may move from one county to another; to provide a penalty for any dealer, clerk or agent who may sell school text-books at greater price than the contracts entered into between boards of public instruction and publishers, and for other purposes.

Was taken up and was read the third time in full.

Mr. Cone moved to indefinitely postpone Senate Bill No. 2.

Mr. Williams moved to amend that the bill be laid on the table subject to call.

Which was not agreed to.

The question recurred upon the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill.

Upon which the yeas and nays were demanded.

The roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President, Senators Broome, Cone, Girardeau, Leggett, McLeod, McMullen, Withers—8.

Nays—Senators Adkins, Beard, Buckman, Davis, Dayton, Harris, Henderson, Hosford, Humphries, Johnson, McCreary, Sams, Sloan—13.

Mr. Cook announced that he had paired with Mr. Baker, of the 29th District. That if Mr. Baker, of the 29th District, were present and voting that Mr. Baker would vote for the passage of the bill and he (Mr. Cook) would vote against it.

So the Senate refused to indefinitely postpone the bill.

Mr. Cone moved that the further consideration of the bill be deferred to Monday at 11 o'clock.

Which was agreed to and so ordered.

It will be seen by this that the statement in The Metropolis is absolutely at variance with what actually did occur. The paper, as is well-known, is in favor of saddling on the people of Florida the State uniformity octopus, and is coloring its news accordingly.

The mission of a newspaper is to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. In the face of the record, which must necessarily be a correct account of what transpired, how does the report in the Jacksonville paper stand?

The only lobby that appears to be in existence is that for State uniformity, and it seems to be getting in its work with some of the papers, especially in view of the statements made two years ago in a hearing before the Joint Committee of Education of the two houses by a prominent citizen of Florida: He said that "the money to defray the expenses of sending persons through the State seeking to find, if he could, information in favor of his position, had been paid by agents of Ginn & Co. and Heath & Co., both school book publishers," and this statement was published widely in the newspapers at that time.

Stop garbling the news. Print things just as they happen, and no one will be deceived.

The taxpayers do not want to be saddled with any more "boards."—Tallahassee Morning News, 16th.

When President Taft sent to the Senate the nomination of Henry Groves Connor, Democrat, for judge of the Eastern district of North Carolina, he only carried out his avowed policy of appointing the best lawyers he can to places on the Federal bench, whether they be Republicans or Democrats, says our Washington correspondent. The contest for the place has been a bitter one and the Republicans of the Eastern District of North Carolina recently urged the President not to appoint a Democrat even if he had to go out of the district to find a suitable Republican for the place. The nomination of Judge Connor did not come as a surprise to those who have followed the matter closely. He is regarded at the White House as a man of liberal views and was on the bench of the supreme court of North Carolina for about ten years, and before that for a number of years was a judge of the superior courts.

Scores of Gainesville Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Gainesville people endorse our claim.

Mrs. V. E. Spence, 201 W. Arlington street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "It would be hard to describe how I suffered from a weak and aching back. At times the pains were so intense that I could not get up or down. I was also troubled by rheumatism and different parts of my body became stiff and lame. A friend finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a box, I began their use. I am glad to say that they lived up to representations, removing the ...s and disposing of the rheumatism. I can honestly say that Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any medicine I had previously taken."

LEPROSY.

After One Ravage the Disease May Lie Dormant For Years.

The leper in the settlement at Molokai is far better off than the leper who lies in hiding outside. Such a leper is a lonely outcast, living in constant fear of discovery and slowly and surely rotting away. The action of leprosy is not steady. It lays hold of its victim, commits a ravage and then lies dormant for an indeterminate period. It may not commit another ravage for five years or ten years or forty years, and the patient may enjoy uninterrupted good health. Rarely, however, do these first ravages cease of themselves. The skilled surgeon is required, and the skilled surgeon cannot be called in for the leper who is in hiding. For instance, the first ravage may take the form of a perforating ulcer in the sole of the foot. When the bone is reached necrosis sets in. If the leper is in hiding he cannot be operated upon, the necrosis will continue to eat its way up the bone of the leg, and in a brief and horrible time that leper will die of gangrene or some other terrible complication. On the other hand, if that same leper is in Molokai the surgeon will operate upon the foot, remove the ulcer, cleanse the bone and put a complete stop to that particular ravage of the disease. A month after the operation the leper will be out riding on horseback, running foot races, swimming in the breakers or climbing the giddy sides of the valleys for mountain apples. And, as has been stated before, the disease, lying dormant, may not again attack him for five, ten or forty years.—Jack London in Contemporary Review.

A Smile

A Compositor's Blunder.

Some years ago the following apologetic explanation for a curious typographical blunder appeared in a leading weekly literary journal published in London.

"In our last number, as we discovered unfortunately too late for correction, we announced that Mr. John Stuart Mill's inaugural address lately delivered before the University of St. Andrews had since been republished by him 'in the form of a five shilling elephant.' Even the most ardent believers in Mr. Mill's powers among our readers will probably have received this announcement with some incredulity. The fact is that by an error of the press the word 'elephant' was substituted for 'pamphlet,' and the mistake, although the proof was read and reread, unluckily escaped the corrector's eye."

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? J. W. McCollum & Co.

FORMER MARSHAL IS NOW IN TROUBLE

C. H. SLAUGHTER ARRESTED ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE.

Taken by Deputy Sheriff George Wynn at Home of Relatives, and Will Be Given a Hearing Today.

According to telephone information from Newberry, C. H. Slaughter, well-known throughout the West End, is in custody at Newberry charged with the embezzlement of funds of that town while he was acting in the capacity of town marshal.

Slaughter is a comparatively young man, and was honored by the people of Newberry by the election of marshal a few months ago, and it was while in this position that it is alleged he misappropriated money collected for fines, etc., belonging to the town.

Slaughter was arrested by Deputy Sheriff George Wynn at the home of relatives near Newberry. He will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice Ira J. Carter at Newberry today.

WHEN WOMEN REGISTER.

A Hotel Clerk Explains Why a Blotter Is Necessary.

"Hotel clerks get to be great observers of human nature," said an old hotel "lobbyist." "During the many hours out of each day that I spend warming this chair I have learned many tricks of their trade which go to prove my statement.

"In fact, this clerk here has a peculiar trick of his own which shows how keen an observer he is. If you watch him at work you will find whenever a woman is registering he holds a blotter so as to hide the other names on the page. At first when I noticed it I thought that he was merely holding the blotter in readiness to use it on the newly written name, but when I found that he did it only when a woman was registering my curiosity got the better of me, and I asked the reason.

"'Why,' said he, 'women are the most nervous creatures in the world. I hold that blotter up to show that I am not watching them write their names and at the same time to keep them from trying to excel the other handwriting on the page. If they noticed that I was watching them closely it is a safe bet that they would get nervous and make an awful botch of their signatures trying to be fancy. On the other hand, if they saw a particularly pretty signature on the next line the chances are that they would try to improve theirs with a flourish or two, which generally means a choice blot to be scratched out by yours truly.'

"I decided to test his theory by looking over a woman's shoulder while she registered. The result was just what he said it would be."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Gretna Green.

Gretna Green is a parish in Scotland, just "over the border," where marriages used to be performed according to the law of Scotland. The ceremony was binding performed by a layman in the simplest form, when, being registered, the parties, in the presence of witnesses, were declared man and wife. The first person who officiated at these strange unions was George Scott, who began "his unlicensed ministry" about the year 1756.

HOW AUTHORS WROTE.

Pope Thought Best When In Bed—Victor Hugo Wrote Standing.

Alexander Pope, who was the literary pontiff of his time, thought best when in bed. Whenever a thought came to him he would jot it down on a scrap of paper. His servant often found bedclothes and floor covered with white bits containing aphorisms which have now become hackneyed quotations.

Victor Hugo wrote "Les Miserables" standing up, an attitude which Hawthorne also assumed when he wrote many of his romances.

One leg thrown over the arm of a chair or sitting on the arm of his secretary's chair were Napoleon's favorite positions while dictating to Bourrienne, a position which he varied now and then by patting that scribe on the head or pulling his ears.

Sir Walter Scott could while reclining on a lounge dictate to two amanuenses, who frequently had to stop writing, so funny the dictated passages seemed to them.

Balzac, in a monk's robe, frequently wrote from midnight till noon, taking drafts of strong coffee when drowsiness attacked him and thus shortening his life by many years, no doubt.

William Morris made one of his famous translations from the Greek while riding on the steam cars. Walt Whitman and Horace Traubel, original in all things, were most original in the position they took while thinking. They were wont, so Mr. Traubel says, to climb upon a pile of lumber and lie down upon their backs. In that way each found out what the other's best thoughts were.—Boston Globe.

WANTED NO LAWYER.

It Was a Simple Matter to Satisfy the Accused.

"Jed Blake to the bar," ordered the judge in a rural Alabama court.

A big, hulking negro ambled up to be arraigned for murder.

"Jed," began the judge, "you are charged with the gravest crime known to the law, that of taking the life of a fellow man. One of the forms of punishment for murder is death. Have you made any arrangements for your defense in this case, Jed?"

"No, suh, jedge. I ain' done nuthin'."

"Have you a lawyer, Jed?"

"No, suh, jedge. I ain' got no lawyer. I ain' got nuthin', jedge."

"Well, Jed," said the judge, showing a little impatience, "have you talked to anybody about this case?"

"I talked to de sheriff some dat night when he come after me, jedge, but you knows dat didn't do no good."

"For your information, Jed, I will state that it is within the province of this court to appoint counsel to any defendant who has none. I am now ready to appoint you a lawyer. Do you want one?"

"No, jedge. I don't want nuthin'," replied Jed rather dolefully.

"See here," snapped the judge, "I won't have any more of this foolishness. You say you don't want any lawyer. Well, then, what do you intend to do about this case?"

"Well, I tells you, jedge, I ain' 'tendin' to do nuthin'. Ef it's jes' de same to you, jedge, as far as I's concerned I's willin' to let do whole matter drap right here."—Everybody's.

Woman and the Jewish Talmud.

The Jewish Talmud has these sentences about women: "A good wife is heaven's noblest gift. A housewife never allows herself to be disturbed from her work. Even while conversing she is busily spinning. An old, experienced woman in a household is an ornament to it like a pearl. He who lives in an unmarried state knows no joys, none of the blessings of home, and is without support. The man who stands at the deathbed of his wife feels like those who saw the temple of Jerusalem reduced to ashes, for the wife is the temple in which each man finds repose and quiet, where he rests after the labors of the day and where he can give expression to his feelings, joyful and mournful. God has given to woman more ability of judging correctly than man."

Artificiality Natural.

"Don't you men really know that women are very largely artificial?"

"Why, yes."

"And what do you think of it?"

"That it's natural, of course."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck growing, phosphate and naval stores belt.
